05/14/2012	52	MINUTES OF DEFENDANT NAKED JUICE CO. OF GLENDORA, INC.S MOTION TO DISMISS PLAINTIFFS CONSOLIDATED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT (Dkt. 41); STATUS CONFERENCE RE SETTLEMENT (SELECTION OF METHOD); STATUS CONFERENCE RE COOPERATION OF COUNSEL/LEAD COUNSEL : Motion and Status Conference held before Judge John A Kronstadt: The Court adheres to its tentative views and GRANTS the motion to dismiss, in part with leave to amend and in part without leave to amend. Plaintiffs shall exchange their initial expert disclosures on January 25, 2013. Defendant shall respond by February 8, 2013. The Court finds that staggering these dates by two weeks will not prejudice any party, given the length of discovery and the date of trial. Moreover, it will make the expert selection process more efficient. If Defendant moves

		for summary judgment, it shall not schedule the hearing for the same day as the motion for class certification. It shall file it either for a date in advance of, or after, the class certification motion. In either case, to the extent that Plaintiffs response to such a motion would be due prior to the determination of the class certification motion, Plaintiffs may ask the Court to continue the hearing date on the summary judgment motion, provided sufficient facts and context are provided for the Court to determine whether a continuance is justified. Counsel for Plaintiffs address the Court regarding scheduling of the amended complaint. The amended complaint shall be filed on or before June 4, 2012. Lead counsel shall provide the Sandys group counsel a copy of the complaint on or before May 28, 2012. Non-lead counsel for Plaintiffs withdraws its request for an in camera proceeding in light of the Courts rulings on the motion to dismiss and related matters. The Court makes no determination regarding the merits of the positions of counsel for various plaintiffs as to the actions of lead counsel and other counsel in this matter in connection with their communications about the case.
