01/20/2016		MINUTE ORDER (Paperless). After informally conferring with Plaintiffs' Counsel who have filed motions seeking appointment as Interim Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, the Court has determined, in an abundance of caution, that it would be prudent to postpone the hearing currently scheduled for January 22, 2016, at 1:30 p.m., in light of

		the projected inclement weather. The Court is available on January 22, 2016, and appreciates all parties' willingness to appear on that date. However, the Court has determined that this is the appropriate course with which to proceed, particularly in light of the number of counsel who will be traveling from outside of the jurisdiction. As such, the Status Hearing on the issue of selecting Plaintiffs' Interim Class Counsel scheduled for January 22, 2016, at 1:30 p.m., is hereby RESCHEDULED to FEBRUARY 3, 2016, at 10:00 A.M., in COURTROOM 28A. The Court has confirmed the availability of Plaintiffs' Counsel who have filed motions seeking appointment as Interim Class Counsel as well as Defense Counsel at this date and time. The Court advises the parties that the hearing will predominantly consist of the Court asking questions of counsel based on the filings that it has received in response to its 38 Order of December 7, 2015. The Court notes that it has received sufficient briefing on the issue of appointing Plaintiffs' Interim Class Counsel and does not require any additional information unless circumstances have changed for counsel. 03/24/2016		MINUTE ORDER: At the parties' joint request, the Court held a telephone conference call on the record today to discuss Plaintiffs' request to lift the discovery stay in this case for a limited purpose, specifically to obtain the materials that Defendants had provided to the Government in response to the Government's subpoena. The Court held a substantive discussion on the record regarding Plaintiffs' arguments in favor of lifting the discovery stay for that limited purpose and Defendants' arguments in opposition. The Court concluded that additional briefing was not necessary regarding this request and that it would rule on Plaintiffs' request, by a subsequent written order, on the basis of the arguments provided in the telephone conference. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 3/24/2016. (lcckk2) (Entered: 03/24/2016)
03/24/2016		MINUTE ORDER: To follow up on the conference call held earlier today regarding Plaintiffs' request for lifting the discovery stay in this case for a limited purpose, the Court reiterates that briefing on these issues is not necessary. However, the Court finds that it would enable an expedited ruling on this matter if the parties provide a list of the cases they referenced in the telephone conference call and any other cases they rely on in support of their arguments that their respective positions are consistent with the general pattern among other similar cases. (That is, Plaintiffs argue that lifting a discovery stay in these circumstances is an ordinary event, and Defendants argue the contrary.) Accordingly, by no later than NOON on Monday, MARCH 28, 2016, each side shall provide a Notice, of no more than ONE PAGE, with a list of the cases they referenced or rely on, including citations to legal databases/reporters or case numbers and docket entries for documents that are accessible via ECF/PACER. The parties MAY NOT include any argument regarding the relevance of these cases to the request now before the Court. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 3/24/2016. 02/06/2018		MINUTE ORDER (Paperless). In preparation for the February 12, 2018 Status Conference, the Court is providing counsel with advance notice of some scheduling issues that have not been addressed in the February 5, 2018 Joint Status Report. Assuming that the Court accepts the January 31, 2019 date as the close of discovery, that date would signify that all fact and third party depositions had been completed; all privilege logs had been provided, likely on a rolling basis, and ruled on; and any motions to compel would have been filed, fully briefed and resolved by that time. Because these events are not separately addressed in the Joint Status Report, due dates will need to be proposed by the parties, and such due dates must provide time to accommodate such briefing and resolution, allowing for any additional discovery required that occurs after these events while still maintaining the January 31, 2019 date for the close of discovery.
