05/13/2015	178	ORDER denying 160 Letter Motion seeking additional time to cross-examine Darrell McKown and another designee of E&Y. Defendant Duroc-Danner does not specify the subjects on which he requires cross-examination except that he was denied the opportunity to inquire about events prior to 2010. However, plaintiffs and E&Y had agreed to the post-2010 time limitation for plaintiffs' examination; defendant was made aware of this limitation in advance of Mr. McKown's deposition; and he did not independently notice a deposition of E&Y. With respect to defendant's anticipatory application for additional time to cross-examine Sarah Adams, Ms. Adams has since been deposed and defendant does not address this issue in his reply letter; it therefore

		appears to be moot. (HEREBY ORDERED by Magistrate Judge James C. Francis) (Text Only Order) (Francis, James) (Entered: 05/13/2015)

08/03/2015	196	JOINT RESPONSE re: 194 Order, 192 Letter of Robert E. Payne. Document filed by Anchorage Police & Fire Retirement System, Sacramento City Employees Retirement System. (Bernstein, Joel) (Entered: 08/03/2015)
09/18/2015	197	ORDER: The Court is in receipt of a letter from Robert E. Payne dated July 6, 2015 [DI 192]. In his letter, Mr. Payne says, among other things, that he "want[s] to be excluded from the class in this matter" and states his opinion that certain of the information sought from those who wish to be excluded from the class-information such as the number of shares of Weatherford common stock and the dates and prices of the stock's purchase or acquisition-is "not at all required, as a matter of law, in order [to be] excluded" from the class. Mr. Payne says he does not have the requested information and that it would be difficult for him to obtain it. Finally, he asks "to be informed immediately" if the readers of his letter "take the view that [he is] not excluded by virtue of this communication." The Court promptly requested briefing with respect to Mr. Payne's request. The parties to the litigation submitted a joint response to the Payne exclusion request [DI 195]. Substantially for the reasons set forth therein, the Court concludes that Mr. Payne's objection to the requirement that requests for exclusion from the class include certain information concerning the objector's holdings in and acquisition of Weatherford common stock is ill founded. As his request for exclusion fails to comply with paragraph 8 of the Order Approving Notice and Summary Notice of Class Action (the "Order"), it is invalid. The Court nevertheless affords Mr. Payne an opportunity to submit an exclusion request that complies in all respects with the Order provided that any such request is filed with the Court and served upon all counsel no later than October 16, 2015. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Lewis A. Kaplan on 9/18/2015) (ajs) (Entered: 09/18/2015)

11/04/2015	211	ORDER APPROVING PLAN OF ALLOCATION granting 198 Motion for Settlement Approval of Proposed Class Action Settlement and Plan of Allocation; granting 200 Motion for Attorney Fees. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that: Pursuant to and in compliance with Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Court hereby finds and concludes that due and adequate notice was directed to persons and entities who are Class Members, advising them of the proposed Plan of Allocation and of their right to object thereto, and a full and fair opportunity was accorded to persons and entities who are Class Members to be heard with respect to the Plan of Allocation. The Court hereby finds and concludes that the Plan of Allocation for the calculation of the claims of Authorized Claimants that is set forth in the Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement and Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses (the "Settlement Notice") disseminated to Class Members provides a fair and reasonable basis upon which to allocate the net settlement proceeds among Class Members. The Court hereby finds and concludes that the Plan of Allocation set forth in the Settlement Notice is, in all respects, fair and reasonable and the Court hereby approves the Plan of Allocation. 11/04/2015	212 R	JUDGMENT AND ORDER APPROVING CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT: NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED: The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Action and all matters relating to the Settlement, as well as personal jurisdiction over all of the Parties and each of the Class Members. The Court finds that the dissemination of the Settlement Notice and the publication of the Summary Settlement Notice: (a) were implemented in accordance with the Notice Order; (b) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (c) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of (i) the effect of the Settlement (including the Releases provided for therein), (ii) Class Counsel's motion for an award of attorneys' fees and payment of litigation expenses, (iii) their right to object to any aspect of the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and/or Class Counsel's motion for attorneys' fees and payment of litigation expenses, (iv) their right to opt-back into the Class if they previously submitted a request for exclusion in connection with the Class Notice, (v) their right to request exclusion from the Class in connection with the Settlement Notice; and (vi) their right to appear at the Settlement Hearing; (d) constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons or entities entitled to receive notice of the proposed Settlement; and (e) satisfied the requirements of Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 ("PSLRA"), 15 U.S.C. §78u-4(a)(7), and all other applicable laws and rules. Pursuant to, and in accordance with, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Court hereby fully and finally approves the Settlement set forth in the Stipulation, Rider 5, in a all respects (including, without limitation, the amount of the Settlement; the Releases provided for therein, including the release of the Released Claims as against the Defendants and the other Released Defendant Parties; and the dismissal with prejudice of claims against Defendants), and finds that the Settlement is in all respects fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Parties are directed to implement, perform, and consummate the Settlement in accordance with the terms and provisions contained in the Stipulation as modified. If the Effective Date does not occur, or the Settlement is terminated as provided in the Stipulation, then this Judgment (other than Paragraph 11) and any orders of the Court relating to the Settlement shall be vacated, rendered null and void, and be of no further force or effect, except as otherwise provided by the Stipulation. There is no just reason to delay the entry of this Judgment as a final judgment in this Action. Accordingly, the Clerk of the Court is expressly directed to immediately enter this final judgment in this Action. The Clerk shall terminate DI 198. (As further set forth in this Judgment.)
