11/04/2010	37	SUMMARY ORDER APPOINTING LEAD PLAINTIFF: For the reasons stated on the record, I grant Philips Pensioenfonds' motion for appointment as lead plaintiff and deny Oklahoma Firefighters and Union's competing motion. Moreover, I approve Philips Pensioenfonds' selection of Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP as lead counsel for the proposed plaintiff class. Although I deny Oklahoma Firefighters and Union's motion for approval of their chosen counsel as co-lead counsel for the class, I suggest that Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP consider incorporating into their litigating group the attorneys who represent Oklahoma Firefighters and Union, to the extent that such cooperation would enhance the efficiency of this litigation without duplicating efforts or causing undue expense. Philips Pensioenfonds should submit a stipulation and proposed order for the court's approval by November 12, 2010, setting forth a deadline for plaintiffs to amend their complaint and for defendants to answer or otherwise respond. The Clerk shall mark the motions (Doc. Nos. 8, 11, 15) terminated. (Signed by Judge Alvin K. Hellerstein on 11/4/2010) (jfe) (Entered: 11/04/2010)

(the "Government Investigations") and (ii) legal advice regarding Pfizer's FAS 5 reserves in connection with potential losses arising out of the Government Investigations (together, the "Waived Subjects"), Pfizer will be deemed to have waived the attorney-client privilege as to the Waived Subjects as further set forth in this order. Hellerstein from Henry Rosen dated 3/4/2013 re: Plaintiffs respectfully request, subject to the Court's availability, that both mailers, i.e., the March 8, 2013, status conference and the discovery dispute with KPMG be held at the same time. If convenient with the Court's calendar, plaintiffs make the request that these matters be combined and set separately on March 8, 2013, for the following reasons:ENDORSEMENT: I shall hear argument with the status conference at 10:45 a.m. So Ordered. (Status Conference set for 3/8/2013 at 10:45 PM before Judge Alvin K. Hellerstein.) (Signed by Judge Alvin K. Hellerstein on 3/6/2013) (js) (Entered: 03/06/2013)

03/08/2013	157	ORDER: Plaintiff and Defendants dispute what discovery Plaintiff is entitled to. On March 8, 2013, I held oral argument on this issue. I rule as follows:Depositions of trial witnesses: Plaintiff seeks to depose all 19 witnesses that Defendants indicated that they could potentially call at trial. Defendants respond that they ""ill only call 10 or fewer of these 19 witnesses. Defendants must provide a list of witnesses they plan to call at trial by March 15, 2013. Plaintiffs may depose the witnesses on that list only.Depositions of witnesses with knowledge of Bextra, Geodon, Zyvox, and Lyrica: Plaintiff has identified 17 witnesses who potentially have information on the off-label use of these four drugs. Plaintiff is entitled to eight to ten depositions of these witnesses; the parties shall exchange information to determine who of the 17 witnesses should be deposed. Depositions of Defendants' internal auditors: Plaintiff seeks to depose individuals at Pfizer who conducted internal audits. The parties have identified two individuals who were in charge of the internal audits; Plaintiff may depose those individuals.If Plaintiff seeks any depositions beyond those allowed under this order, Plaintiff must show, by a "2En letter, why the proposed deponent would provide relevant information that had not previously been uncovered through discovery. See Indiv. R. 2E. Documents from Dennis Block: Plaintiff seeks documents from Dennis Block, who served as outside counsel to Pfizer. Block is relevant to the case in that the Defendants may have acted in good faith in relying on his advice. Plaintiffs may obtain documents from Block, but only to the extent that those documents relate to information and advice that Block gave to Defendants. Documents on Defendants' profits: Plaintiff seeks more detail on an 11-page document that provides data on Defendants' profits and loss. This additional information is of limited probative value. I therefore rule that Plaintiff is not entitled to more information on this document. (Signed by Judge Alvin K. Hellerstein on 3/8/2013) (tro) (Entered: 03/08/2013)
03/08/2013	158	ORDER terminating 153 Motion for Protective Order. Non-party KPMG LLP seeks a protective order preventing Plaintiff from obtaining additional discovery from KPMG in this matter. I held oral argument on this issue on March 8, 2013. For the reasons stated on the record, I find that documents held by Tim Hendley, a KPMG forensic audit partner who worked with Defendants, may be relevant to the case, and I deny KPMG's motion that seeks to block Plaintiff from accessing those records. KPMG, however, is entitled to reimbursement for some its costs in responding to Plaintiff's subpoena. The parties have agreed that Plaintiff will pay KPMG $65,000 in settlement of the $123,051.56 of costs so far incurred. This payment does not include payment for expenses yet to be incurred, such as expenses related to the Hendley documents, which may also be reimbursable. The Clerk shall terminate the motion (Doc. No. 153). (Signed by Judge Alvin K. Hellerstein on 3/8/2013) (lmb) (Entered: 03/09/2013)

Defendants' objections are sustained, without my having to consider the law of work-product privilege. 2. Plaintiffs' request to send the joint letter to a judge in a different case is denied. The parties' protective order confines discovery to the purposes of this case, not to others. 3. The parties' separate letters of November 18 and 19, 2013 are unauthorized efforts to communicate to the court, and will be returned. Communications to the court are limited to motions pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or the Court's Local Rules, or my Individual Rules of Practice. 4.
