NOTICE OF OBJECTION TO SETTLEMENT AND ATTORNEY FEES

I object to the settlement and request for attorney fees for the following reasons:

1. It is not fair to limit class members without receipts to $10 maximum recovery (compared to $200 with receipts)—especially since any surplus will be share on pro-rata basis. It is unrealistic to expect people to keep receipts for several years. A sworn statement should be sufficient.
2. There is no way class counsel can justify receiving 25% of the $32 million settlement fund. First, they haven't bothered to document their request. Second, I assume they inflated their hours and/or the billable rates. Finally, the result doesn't justify such an award (especially when you compare the fee to total claims actually paid). All things considered, I think the fee should be no more than 15%.

I will be hiring a lawyer to represent me. I assume he'll want to come to the hearing next month. I swear, under penalty of perjury, that I purchased at least one qualified product during the class period.
